

Kingston Time & Leisure Magazine

Rokeby Press Coverage

January 2010

Schools hit the right note

A total of 20 choirs from schools in Richmond and Kingston entered the VOX School Choir Competition run by the Landmark Arts Centre in Teddington. Both the Mayors of Richmond and Kingston attended the finals. Winner of the Infants Section was the Newland House Infants Choir; winner of the Junior Section was the Rokeby Prep School Junior choir and the winner of the Secondary School Section was the St Catherine's Chamber Choir. Newland House Infants' Choir members Polly Hall and

Myles Billington are pictured receiving the VOX prize with Councillor Celia Hodges, Mayor of the London Borough of Richmond upon Thames; Councillor Ian McDonald, Mayor of the Royal Borough of Kingston upon Thames; Judge Graham Ross and Gavin Pettinger, Newland House School Head of Music.

